MODERN CLASSICS

All designs need to evolve and with it we move forward in life. But, there are times when a design is born and we keep hold of it. Our Classic collection are designs of the past, where we have added a modern approach to them.

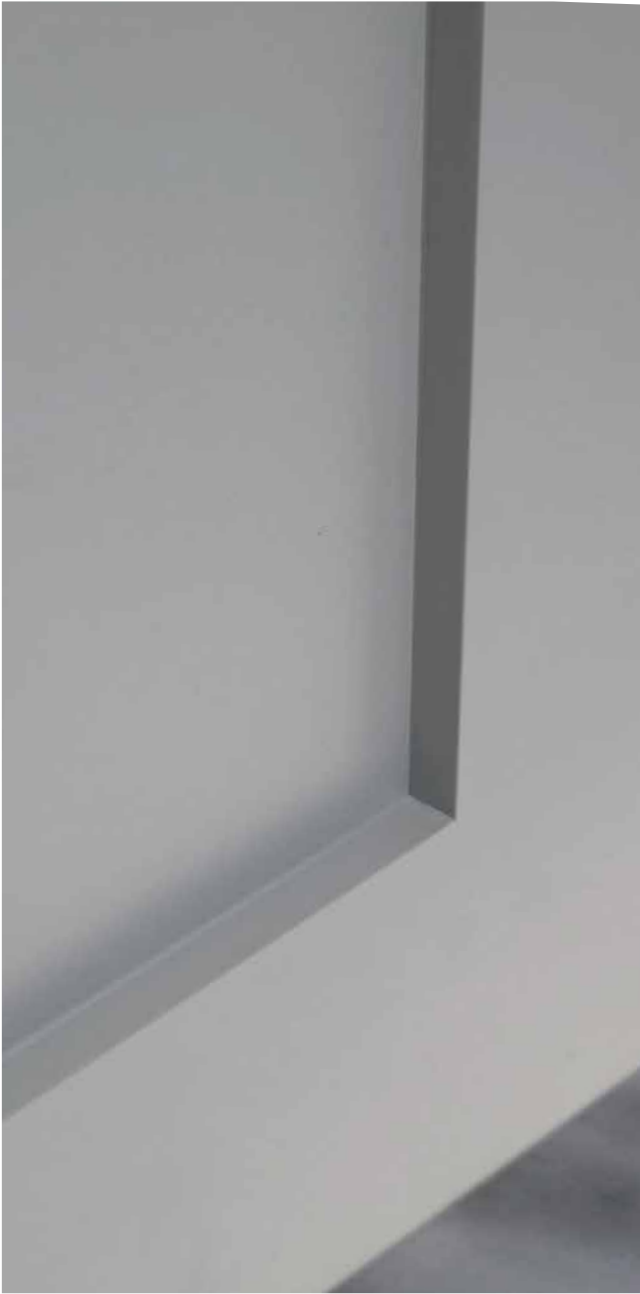

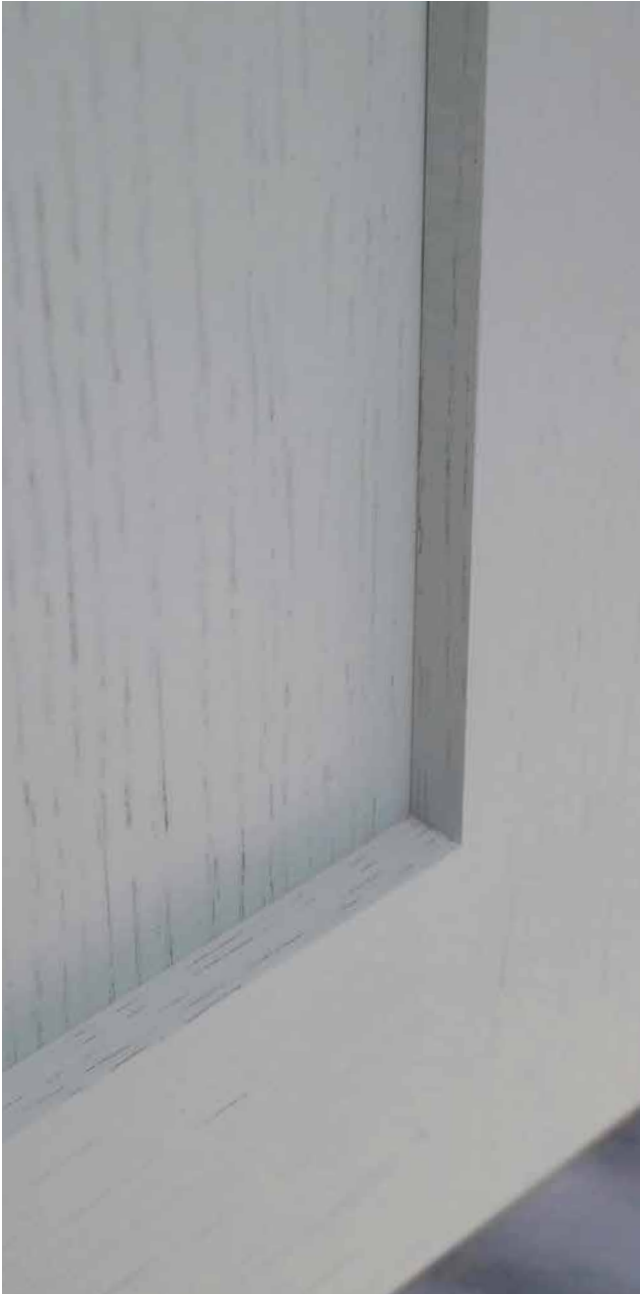

Available in both a 'Lay-on' design or 'In-frame' design all of our Classic door ranges (and our Stratford range from Contemporary) have the opportunity to be styled as you see fit.

The 'Lay-on' style is a door which sits to the front of the carcass with no visible frame surrounding it, creating a slightly more contemporary feel. The 'In-frame' is the exact opposite and uses the frame to encapsulate the doors, creating a more classic look.

ADDED LITTLE DETAILS

Our range of finishes will bring you a visual delight in your home, and because a kitchen is lived and breathed in it is an entirely personal space. Each range has its own carefully picked palette, but if you still fancy creating a difference then our Classic doors have an added little perk.

All of our painted finishes in the Classic range (and our Stratford range from Contemporary) can be painted directly onto our Oak doors, leaving a grained texture to the end result. Alternatively you can the same colours as a smooth finish, leaving a perfectly smooth result.

Your kitchen, you home, your choice.

It is our aim to provide handcrafted furniture solutions, innovative appliances and durable worktops that will be enjoyed by our clients and their family for years to come. This can only be achieved by meeting the needs of their lifestyle through effective design.

Kitchens InStyle take great pride in each and every kitchen or bedroom we create. We will work closely with you on every detail throughout the design process. This ensures that you are delighted with a design that is practicable, functional, looks fantastic and meets your budget.

Beyond your initial satisfaction and project completion we will only be content if you are enthusiastically recommending us to all your family, friends and work colleagues. Our ultimate reward is to hear a prospective client tell us how sincerely you referred them to your designer at Kitchens InStyle.
